Vegetable Blood and Liver Pills.

Pure Bile! Pure Blood! Pure Fiesh!

A MUCH needed medicine, in all tropical climates, is a Blood Purifier and a Liver Regulator. These PILLS combine the essential properties of an Invigorator of the Liver and Purifier of the Blood. The largest organ in the body is the Liver. It is the preat work-shop of the body. When this important organ does not act, the skin becomes sallow; sick headache sets in, with chilly sensations; cold hands and feet; pain in the head; heetic fever; gastric disturbance; vomiting; a feeling of weight in the region of the Liver; a dry Cough. Among other symptoms of liver derangement, are soreness in the region of the liver, across the stomach, and below the ribs; oppressed stomach; face sometimes flushed; feverishness in the afternoon or at night; drowsiness and indolence; nervous watchfulness at night; nelancholy, blue; dreams, commonly frightful; chest oppressed and heavy; darting pains in the abdomen; faintness; sighing; difficult and short breath; pain in the chest, about the lungs, commonly mistaken for pleurisy; shifting pains, like those of rheumatism; colics; sometimes a short, sharp cough, with dryness of throat; unpleasant throbbing about the stomach; excess of dandruff, and scurfy deposit on the skin; falling of the hair; fulness and straitness of the abdomen, with desire to loosen the clothing, sour stomach, with symptoms of dyspepsia; bilious colics; diarrhoxa; dysentery; fevers; obstinate constipation; intermittent fover, or fever and ague; jaundice; costiveness and diarrhox alternately; expectoration stringy and sticky; foul mouth in the morning, often nausea and vomiting; dizziness; pain in the right shoulder, sometimes in shoulder-blade; inability to lie on left side; hiccough; occasionally, pain in left shoulder. Scasonable use of the BLOOD AND LIVER PILLS, taken as directed, will always prevent this painful termination of the disorder.

nice line of early Fall Prints. Domestics, IS composed of the best Anti-periodic Tonics known to the medical profession. The addition of certain ingredients has completely disguised the taste of the Tonic principle as to render it palatable, even to the most fastidious.

It augments the energy of the vital functions, exerting a powerful influence over the digostive, as-imulative, sanguiniferous and nervous systems.

It proves salutary in the debility consequent upon all malarious diseases, violent bodily or mental exertion, in weakness of the constitution of both sexes, in nervous vertigo head-ache, tic-doloreux, and many local pains, dependent on deficient energy in the nervous system. It also possesses laxative and alterative properties, and will remove all biliousness from the stomach, increa-c the appetite, and invigorate the whole system.
